ORDER

Pending before the Court is the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction (Document No. 2). Having considered the motion, submissions, and applicable law, the Court determines the motion should be denied as moot.

On August 12, 2019, Plaintiff R.B. (“R.B.”) moved for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to prohibit the imposition of certain disciplinary sanctions against R.B. (the “Injunction Motion”). On August 19, 2019, the parties jointly requested, and the Court granted, a continuance of the Injunction Motion.¹ On October 25, 2019, Defendants responded to the Injunction Motion, stating R.B. was found not responsible for certain alleged disciplinary violations and thus the Injunction Motion is moot. Consequently, R.B. “assents to the denial of the [Injunction Motion] without prejudice.”² In light of the foregoing, the Court finds the Injunction Motion should be denied as moot. Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS that the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction (Document No. 2) is DENIED AS MOOT.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, on this 18 day of November, 2019.
